First Reading: A reading from the Book of Ecclesiastes

For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven.
A time to be born, and a time to die;
A time to plant, and a time to pluck what is planted;
A time to break down, and a time to build up;
A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
A time to mourn, and a time to dance;
A time to throw away stones, and a time to gather stones together;
A time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
A time to seek, and a time to lose;
A time to keep, and a time to throw away;
A time to tear, and a time to sew;
A time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
A time for war, and a time for peace.
God has made everything suitable for its time.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Be not afraid

Second reading: A reading from the second letter of St Paul to Timothy

As for me, I am already being poured out as an offering, and the time of my departure has come.
I have fought the good fight.
I have finished the race,
I have kept the faith.
From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness,
which the Lord, the righteous judge,
will give me on that day,
and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

This is the Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

Reading from the Holy Gospel according to John 14. 1 – 6

Jesus said to his disciples:
“Do not let your hearts be troubled,”
Trust in God still, and trust in me.
There are many rooms in my Father’s house,
if there were not, I should have told you.”
I am going now to prepare a place for you,
and after I have gone and prepared you a place,
I shall return to take you with me;

So that where I am you may be too.
You know the way to the place where I am going.
Thomas said” Lord, we do not know where you are going,
so how can we know the way?

Jesus said:

“I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life.
No one can come to the father except through me

Prayers of the Faithful:

We pray that Margaret may journey through death to life
That God’s mercy may descend upon her,
And that He will hold her forever in the palm of His hand.
Lord, hear us

Lord, graciously hear us.

We pray for Grandad who has been Nana’s devoted husband for over 57 years, that he will find strength and consolation in the love and support of his family and friends.

Lord, hear us

Lord, graciously hear us.

We pray for all those we have loved and who have died and especially for Margaret’s sisters Maura and Anne, and brothers Seamus, Paddy, and Terry who she loved dearly.

Lord, hear us

Lord, graciously hear us.

We pray for those who care for the sick. We give thanks to the many carers who have helped care for Nana in the last three years of her life. During a time of lock down, they brought the world into her home coming from Ireland, England, Portugal Nigeria, Somalia, South Africa, the Sudan, the Congo, the Philippines, Mexico, and Brazil.

Lord, hear us

Lord, graciously hear us.
