First Reading (Read by Denise Wall)

A reading from the prophet Isaiah 25:6-10

On this mountain,
the lord of hosts will prepare for all peoples
a banquet of food rich and juicy, of fine strained wines.
On this mountain he will remove the mourning veil covering all peoples,
and the shroud enwrapping all nations,
he will destroy Death forever.
The lord will wipe away the tears from every cheek;
he will take away his people's shame everywhere on earth,
for the Lord has said so.
That day, it will be said: See, this is our God
in whom we hoped for salvation;
the lord is the one in whom we hoped.
We exult and we rejoice that he has saved us;
for the hand of the Lord rests on this mountain.

This is the Word of the Lord
Response: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm:

Second Reading (Read by Andrea McCann)

A reading from the first letter of St John 3:1-2

Think of the love the father has lavished on us, by letting us be called God's children; and that is what we are. Because the world refused to acknowledge him, therefore it does not acknowledge us. My dear people, we are already the children of God but what we are to be in the future has not yet been revealed; all we know is, that when it is revealed we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he really is.

This is the Word of the Lord
Response: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation Hymn:

Gospel: The Beatitudes

Prayers of the Faithful:

Read by Clare Slack

For Ossie who in baptism was given the pledge of eternal life, that he may now be admitted to the company of the saints.

Lord, hear us

Response: Lord, graciously hear us.

For all those who have fallen asleep in the hope of rising again, that they may see God face to face.

Lord, hear us

Response: Lord, graciously hear us.

Read by Louise Wallace

For our deceased relatives and friends and for all who have helped us, that they may have the rewards of their goodness.

Lord, hear us

Response: Lord, graciously hear us.

For all of us assembled here to worship in faith that we may be gathered together again in God's kingdom.

Lord, hear us

Response: Lord, graciously hear us.

Read by Colin Correa

For our Brother Ossie who ate the body of Christ, the bread of life, that he may be raised up on the last day.

Lord, hear us

Response: Lord, graciously hear us.
