Reading 1: Reader's Name John Kelleher

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

The Lord says this;

“Do not be afraid for I am with you.

Stop being anxious or fearful, for I am your God.

I give you strength. I bring you help.

I uphold you with my right hand.

Do not be afraid for I have redeemed you.

I have called you by your name.

You are mine.”

The Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

Reading 2: Reader's Name Sean Moran

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Romans

The life and death of each of us has its influence on others; if we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord, so that alive or dead we belong to the Lord. This explains why Christ both died and came to life, it was so that he might be Lord both of the dead and of the living. We shall all have to stand before the judgement seat of God; as scripture says: By my life – it is the Lord who speaks – every knee shall bend before me, and every tongue shall praise God. It is to God, therefore, that each of us must give an account of himself.

The Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

Prayers of the Faithful:

Michael

Dear Lord,

We pray for the emergency services, RCC crisis support and those who attended and helped Julie. We also pray for the staff in Blanchardstown Accident and Emergency and the local gardai especially Aisling and Michelle for their kindness and support.

Lord hear us.

Eoin

Dear Lord,

We pray for the students and support services in TUD, especially Scott Ahearn who was a light for Julie in her hours of darkness.

Lord hear us.

Rebecca

Dear Lord,

We pray for families who have been bereaved, for those who have died, especially Julie's grandfather Michael and Aunty Mary and for all those in need of our prayers.

Lord hear us.

Daniel

Dear Lord,

We pray for Anna, Gary, Thomas, Rachel and Sophie. May they feel the love and support from their family and friends in the months ahead as they try to come to terms with their loss.

Lord Hear Us.

Hugh

Dear Lord,

We thank you for the gift of Julie. Her free-spirit, gentle and kind nature touched all those she knew. She will live in our hearts forever. We pray for all those who are struggling like Julie did. May they find the strength and courage to seek help.

Lord hear us.
