First Reading A reading from the Prophet Isaiah (25: 6-9)

On this mountain, the Lord of hosts will prepare for all peoples a banquet of rich food. On this mountain he will remove the mourning veil covering all peoples, and the shroud enwrapping all nations, he will destroy death forever. The Lord will wipe away the tears from every cheek; he will take away his people's shame everywhere on earth, for the Lord has said so. That day, it will be said: See, this is our God in whom we hoped for salvation; the Lord is the one in whom we hoped. We exult and we rejoice that he has saved us.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Be not afraid (sung)

Second Reading A reading from St Paul to the Philippians

Always be joyful, then in the Lord; I repeat, be joyful. Let your gentleness be obvious to everybody. The Lord is near. Never worry about anything; but tell God all your desires of every kind in prayer and petition shot through with gratitude, and the peace of God which is beyond our understanding will guard your hearts and your thoughts in Jesus Christ. Finally, brothers and sisters, let your minds be filled with everything that is true, everything that is honourable, everything that is upright and pure, everything that we love and admire, with whatever is good and praiseworthy.

Keep doing everything you learnt from me and were told by me and have heard or seen me doing. Then the God of peace will be with you.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation Seinn Alleluia (sung)

Gospel A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John (14: 1-6)

Jesus said to his disciples: "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God still, and trust in me. There are many rooms in my Father's house; if there were not, I should have told you. I am going now to prepare a place for you, and after I have gone and prepared you a place, I shall return to take you with me; so that where I am, you may be too. You know the way to the place I am going. "

Thomas said, "Lord, we do not know where you are going, so how can we know the way?"

Jesus said, "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life. No one can come to the Father except through me."

This is the Gospel of the Lord
