Entrance Hymn How Great Thou Art

Reading 1: Readers Name: Conor Church

A reading from The Book of Ecclesiastes 3:1-8,11

For everything there is a season and a time for every matter under heaven;
a time to be born and a time to die;
a time to plant and a time to uproot;
a time to break down and a time to build up;
a time to weep and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn and a time to dance,
a time to scatter stones and a time to gather stones together;
a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing;
a time to seek and a time to lose,
a time to keep and a time to throw away;
a time to reap and a time to sow;
a time to keep silent and a time to speak,
God has made everything beautiful in its time

The Word of the Lord

Reading 2: Readers Name: Jade Walker

A reading from The Second letter of St Paul to Timothy 4:5-8

Be careful always to choose the right course; be brave under trials; make the preaching of the Good News your life's work, in detailed service.
As for me, my life is approaching the end, and the time has come for me to be gone. I have fought the good fight to the end; I have run the race to the finish, I have kept the faith; all there is to come now is the crown of righteousness reserved for me, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that Day, and not only to me but to all those who have longed for his appearing.

Communion

Hymn 1 Panis Angelicus

Hymn 2 I walk with God

Irish Blessing: Sample

May the road

Rise up to meet you.

May the wind

Be always at your back.

May the sun shine

Warm upon your face;

And the rains fall

Soft upon your fields.

And until we meet again,

May God hold you

In the palm of His hand.
