First Reading Mark Creevy	A Reading from the Prophet Isaiah I will never forget you Shout for joy, you heavens; exult, you earth! You mountains, break into happy cries! For the Lord consoles his people and takes pity on those who are afflicted. For Zion was saying, 'the Lord has abandoned me, the Lord has forgotten me'. Does a woman forget her baby at the breast, or fail to cherish the son of her womb? Yet even if these forget, I will never forget you. See I have carved you on the palm of my hands.
Psalms	Clouds Veil (song)
Second Reading David Doherty	A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians Our homeland is in heaven For us, our homeland is in heaven, and from heaven comes the saviour we are waiting for, the Lord Jesus Christ. And he will transfigure these bodies of ours into copies of his glorious body.

He will do that by the same power with which he can subdue the whole universe.

The word of the Lord.

Acclamation Response: "Alleluia" (song)

Gospel A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Father, into your hands I commend my spirit

It was about the sixth hour and, with the sun eclipsed, a darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour. The veil of the Temple was torn right down the middle; and when Jesus had cried out in a loud voice, he said, 'Father, into your hands I commit my spirit'. With these words he breathed his last.
Then a member of the council arrived, an upright and virtuous man named Joseph.
This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. He then took it down, wrapped it in a shroud and put him in a tomb which was hewn in stone in which no one had yet been laid. On the first day of the week, at the first sign of dawn, the women went to the tomb with the spices they had prepared. They found that the stone had been rolled away from the tomb, but on entering discovered that the body of the Lord Jesus was not there. As they stood there not knowing what to think, two men in brilliant clothes suddenly appeared at their side.
Terrified, the women lowered their eyes. But the two men said to them, 'Why look among the dead for someone who is alive? He is not here; he is risen.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Our Father Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; Thy kingdom come; thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.

Eulogy Andrew Creevy

Poem
Karen Glennon

God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be. So he put his arms around you and whispered 'come with me'.
With tearful eyes we watched you, and saw you pass away. Although we loved you dearly, we could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating, hard working hands at rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us, he only takes the BEST.
