

A Service to Celebrate the Life

— of —

Malachi Faughnan

26th December 1930 - 14th November 2019

Funeral Mass

Church of St. Thomas the Apostle

Laurel Lodge

Castleknock

Tuesday: 19th November 2019

11.00am

Celebrant: Fr. Brendan Quinlan

Soloist: Wayne Woodman

Entrance Hymn
Pie Jesu

A reading from the Book of Ecclesiastes read by Eimer, Malachi's daughter

*This is the word of the Lord
Thanks be to God*

Responsorial Psalm

A reading from the Second Letter of St Paul to Timothy read by Colm,
Malachi's brother

*The word of the Lord
Thanks be to God*

The Gospel

Prayers of the faithful read by Malachi's grandchildren

Reader: Myles

*Lord, hear us
Lord, graciously hear us*

Reader: Cillian

*Lord, hear us
Lord, graciously hear us*

Reader: Alison

*Lord, hear us
Lord, graciously hear us*

Reader: Niamh

*Lord, hear us
Lord, graciously hear us*

Offertory Procession

Hymn: Make me a channel of your peace
Roísín and Sarah, Malachi's grandchildren

Acclamation of Faith: He is lord

Communion

Hymn: I'll walk with God

Eulogy read by Declan and Malachi, Malachi's sons

Recessional

Hymn: How great thou art

The service concludes at Glasnevin Crematorium for close family.

Malachi's family wish to thank you for your kind messages of sympathy and support at this sad time and for your presence here today. You are warmly invited to continue celebrating his life at the Luttrellstown Castle Golf Clubhouse, Castleknock, Co Dublin D15 RH92.

Donations in memory of Malachi, if desired, to The Alzheimer's Society of Ireland.