A reading from A Reading from the Book of Ecclesiastes 3:1-8,11

For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven:

A time to be born, and a time to die;

A time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted;

A time to break down, and a time to build up;

A time to weep, and a time to laugh;

A time to mourn, and a time to dance;

A time to throw away stones, and a time to gather stones together;

A time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

A time to seek, and a time to lose;

A time to keep, and a time to throw away;

A time to tear, and a time to sew;

A time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

A time for war, and a time for peace.

God has made everything suitable for its time.

This is the Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

Reader 2: Stephen McMahon

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Romans 14:7-12

The life and death of each of us has its influence on others; if we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord, so that alive or dead we belong to the Lord.

This explains why Christ both died and came to life, it was so that he might be Lord both of the dead and of the living.

This is also why you should never pass judgement on a brother or treat him with contempt, as some of you have done.

We shall all have to stand before the judgement seat of God;

as scripture says: By my life - it is the Lord who speaks – every knee shall bend before me, and every tongue shall praise God.

It is to God, therefore, that each of us must give an account of himself.

This is the Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.
