Reading 1: Readers Name: Fergal

A reading from the book of Ecclesiastes (3:1-8)

There is a season for everything, a time for every occupation under heaven:

A time for giving birth, a time for dying;

A time for planting, a time for uprooting what has been planted.

A time for killing a time for healing; a time for knocking down, a time for building.

A time for tear, a time for laughter; a time for mourning, a time for dancing.

A time for throwing stones away, a time for gathering them up;

A time for embracing a time to refrain from embracing.

A time for searching, a time for losing; a time for keeping, a time for throwing away

A time for tearing, a time for sewing; a time for keeping silent, a time for speaking.

A time for a loving, a time for hating; a time for War, a time for peace

This is the Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm -Hymn Be not afraid.

Reading 2: Readers Name: Katie

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians (15;20-23)

Christ has been raised from the dead, the first- fruits of all who have fallen asleep.

Death came through one man and in the same way the resurrection of the dead has come though one man. Just as all men die in Adam, so all men will be brought to life in Christ; but all of them in their proper order; Christ as the first- fruits and then, after the coming of Christ, those who belong to him.

This is the Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.
