Memorabilia We have chosen a few memorabilia to represent Conor's
Read by passions and loves:

Dave Basset

We have a picture of Conor standing in front of one of the winning gardens he built for the Bloom festival, as you all know Conor was a very talented Carpenter who took great pride and passion in all of his work. We have also included a picture of the bar he made with the Guinness harp emblem at the front, and a picture of some of his caricature drawings to represent his artistic creativity.

We have brought a football to represent Conor's love of all things sport, a love that started from a very early age - from playing soccer five nights a week, to sitting in front of the TV cheering on his beloved Blackburn Rovers or never missing an opportunity to support Ireland during the six nations or following Dublin in the GAA.....all in all a massive sports fan.

We have brought along Conor's pride and joy - his beloved Fender Jagstang Guitar. He spent many hours mastering all the songs of his favourite bands including Guns 'n Roses, Metallica and Iron Maiden but to mention a few.

We have two beer glasses to symbolise Conor's love for socialising, friendship, storytelling and the craic.

First Reading

Read by

Derek O'Brien

A reading from the Book of Ecclesiastes [3:1-8]

For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven:

a time to be born, and a time to die;

a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted;

a time to break down, and a time to build up;

a time to weep and a time to laugh;

a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

a time to throw away stones, and a time to gather stones together;

a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

a time to seek, and a time to lose;

a time to tear, and a time to sew;

a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

a time for war, and a time for peace.

God has made everything suitable for its time.

The Word of the Lord.

Second Reading

Read by

John McCole

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to Timothy [4:6-8]

As for me, my life is already being poured away as libation, and the time has come for me to be gone. I have fought the good fight to the end; I have run the race to the finish; I have kept the faith; all there is to come now is the crown of righteousness reserved for me, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give me on that Day; and not only to me but to all those who have longed for his Appearing.
The Word of the Lord.

Gospel

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew [5:1-12]

Seeing the crowds, Jesus went up the hill. There he sat down and was joined by his disciples. Then he began to speak. This is what he taught them: 'How happy are the poor in spirit; theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Happy the gentle: they shall have the earth for their heritage. Happy those who mourn; they shall be comforted. Happy those who hunger and thirst for what is right: they shall be satisfied. Happy the merciful: they shall be satisfied. Happy the merciful: they shall have mercy shown them. Happy the pure in heart: they shall see God. Happy those who are persecuted in the cause of right: theirs is the kingdom of heaven. 'Happy are you when people abuse you and persecute you and speak all kinds of calumny against you on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.'

Prayers of the Faithful
Stan Massueras

We pray for and thank the staff at Hamilton Park, who took such great care of Conor over the past 4 years, we thank in particular 1:1 carers; Reece, Jonathan, Christian and Aaron who were brothers to him.

Lord hear us.

Eoin Mullen

We pray for and thank Conor's outstanding medical staff in The Dublin Neurological Institute at the Mater Hospital, in particular Dr. Yudy Llamas who has been an incredible pillar of support for Conor and his family over the past 4 years. We pray for the individuals and families who are affected by dementia, may they find the strength and courage they need.

Lord hear us.

Phil O'Reilly

We pray for Conor's family who have passed - in particular Conor's uncle Kevin and his Granny Eve who he lost last month. We also pray for his friends who have left us too soon - Richie Carroll and Ciaran Delaney who are no doubt waiting for Conor with pints in hand.

Lord hear us.

Dave Rooney

We pray for Conor's wide circle of friends, who meant the absolute world to him. We also pray for the special people in Conor's life who are living afar and unable to join us today, in particular his partner Lara, his dear friends Derek Fagan, Rory Grogan and Darragh O'Loughlin, and all of Conor's extended family.

Lord hear us.

The Sound of Silence

*"Give me a whisper
And give me a sigh,
Give me a kiss before you tell me goodbye.
Don't you take it so hard now,
and please don't take it
so bad, i'll still be thinkin' of you and the times we had" –
