Reading 1: Gerry

A reading from the Book of Ecclesiastes:

There is an appointed time for everything, and a time for everything under the heavens.
A time to be born, and a time to die,
A time to plant, and a time to uproot the plant.
A time to kill, and a time to heal,
A time to tear down, and a time to build.
A time to weep, and a time to laugh,
A time to mourn, and a time to dance.
A time to scatter stones, and time to gather them,
A time to embrace, and a time to refrain.
A time to seek, and a time to lose,
A time to keep, and a time to throw.
A time to rend, and a time to sow,
A time to be silent, and a time to speak.
A time to love, and a time to hate,
A time of war, and a time of peace.
This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Reading 2: Ann

A reading from the Second Letter of Saint Paul to Timothy:

As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me but to all who have longed for his appearing.
This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.
