Reading 1: Reader: Patricia Heatley

A Reading from the Prophet Isaiah

On this mountain, the Lord of hosts will prepare for all peoples a banquet of rich food. On this mountain he will remove the mourning veil covering all peoples, and the shroud enwrapping all nations, he will destroy Death forever. The Lord will wipe away the tears from every cheek, he will take away his people's shame everywhere on earth, for the Lord has said so.

That day, it will be said. See, this is our God in whom we hoped for salvation, the Lord is the one in whom we hoped. We exult and we rejoice that he has saved us.

*This is the Word of the Lord
Thanks be to God.*

Responsorial Psalm: On Eagles Wings

Reading 2: Reader: June McCann

A Reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

When we were baptised in Christ Jesus we were baptised in his death; in other words, when we were baptised we went into the tomb with him and joined him in death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the Father's glory, we too might live a new life. If in union with Christ we have imitated his death, we shall also imitate him in his resurrection.

We must realise that our former selves have been crucified with him to destroy this sinful body and to free us from the slavery of sin. When a man dies, of course, he has finished with sin. But we believe that having died with Christ we shall return to life with him: Christ, as we know, having been raised from the dead will never die again. Death has no power over him anymore.

*This is the Word of the Lord
Thanks be to God.*

Gospel Acclamation Hymn

Prayers of the Faithful:

Reader: Teresa Kelly

For all of us gathered here today, that we may remember at all times, but especially in times of trouble and anxiety, that we are loved by God and that He will take care of us.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, graciously hear us.

Reader: Ethan McCann

For all our departed relatives, friends and loved ones, that they may share with Nana in the fullness of eternal life.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, graciously hear us.

Reader: Nathan McCann

For all the people that looked after Nana during her illness, particularly the staff of Our Lady's Hospice, that they may be blessed for their compassion, dedication and kindness.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, graciously hear us.

Reader: Alison Williams

For all of us who were privileged to know Margo, that we may find comfort not in our sorrow, but in the joy of having shared our lives with such a beautiful soul, and may her legacy of love inspire us to support one another.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, graciously hear us.
