Entrance Hymn: Nearer My God to thee

By Sarah Flower Adams (1841)

First Reading: Reader Paul Young

A reading from the prophet Isaiah (25:6-9)

On this mountain, the Lord of hosts will prepare for all peoples a banquet of rich food. On this mountain he will remove the mourning veil covering all peoples, and the shroud enwrapping all nations, he will destroy Death forever. The Lord will wipe away the tears from every cheek, he will take away his people's shame everywhere on earth, for the Lord has said so. That day, it will be said. See, this is our God in whom we hoped for salvation, the Lord is the one in whom we hoped. We exult and we rejoice that he has saved us.

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm : Reader Catherine Young

Response: The Lord is my Shepherd, There is nothing I shall want

The Lord is my shepherd;
There is nothing I shall want
Fresh and green are the pastures
Where he gives me repose
Near restful waters he leads me
To revive my drooping spirit

Response

*You have prepared a banquet for me
In the sight of my foes.
My head you have anointed with oil;
My cup is overflowing.*

Response

*Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me
All the days of my life.
In the Lords' own house shall I dwell
For ever and ever*

Response
Second Reading: Reader Joan Young

A Reading from the Second Letter of St. Paul to Timothy

Be careful always to choose the right course; be brave under trials; make the preaching of the Good News your life's work, in thorough going service. As for me, my life is already being poured away as a libation, and the time has come for me to be gone. I have fought the good fight to the end; I have run the race to the finish; I have kept the faith; all there is to come now is the crown of righteousness reserved for me, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that Day; and not only to me but to all those who have longed for his Appearing.
The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation Seinn Alleluia

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew 5:1-12a

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain and after he had sat down, his disciples came to him. He began to teach them, saying:

"Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they who mourn,
for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the meek,
for they will inherit the land.

Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness,
for they will be satisfied.

Blessed are the merciful,
for they will be shown mercy.

Blessed are the clean of heart,
for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they will be called children of God.

Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness,
for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me.

Rejoice and be glad,
for your reward will be great in heaven."

Prayers of the faithful: Emma, Conor, Alex, Lukka, Seán

We pray that Nana, who was nourished by her faith throughout her life, may she now be welcomed into the fullness of God's kingdom, where there is everlasting peace.

Lord, hear us

Lord, graciously hear us

We pray for Grandad, Nana's children, her grandchildren, extended family and friends and all who loved Nana. May they be comforted by the love they shared with her.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, graciously hear us

We give thanks for all who cared for Nana with kindness and compassion. May God bless them in their work and continue to strengthen all who care for the sick and those approaching the end of life. We pray especially for Nana's carers: Gloria, Debbie, Mía, Chloe, Hanna, Polyanna, Emily and Nicole as well as her nurses from St. Francis' hospice, Betty & Dymphna and all the public health nurses and doctors.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, graciously hear us

We remember all who have gone before us, especially Nana's parents, siblings, relatives and friends.

We pray also for everyone who is grieving the loss of someone they love, may they find strength and consolation in the love and support of community.

Lord, hear us

Lord, graciously hear us

We pray for all who are sick, lonely, grieving or in need at this time. May God's healing love give them strength and hope.

We pray also for peace in our world, that nations and peoples may work together in justice, compassion and reconciliation.

Lord, hear us

Lord, graciously hear us

Recessional:

Tabhair Dom Do Lámh

By Ruairí Dall Ó Catháin

*May the Lord support us all the day long,
Till the shades lengthen and the evening comes,
And the busy world is hushed,
And the fever of life is over, and our work is done.*

*Then in his mercy may he give us a safe lodging,
And holy rest, and peace at the last.*

Amen.
